

Modern Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement

Genora Partners is committed to conducting business ethically and with integrity. We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery, forced labour and human trafficking in any form.

As a professional services and recruitment organisation, we recognise our responsibility to ensure that the individuals we place and the organisations we partner with operate in a way that respects fundamental human rights.

Our commitment includes:

- Ensuring that all candidates we represent enter employment voluntarily and with full transparency regarding terms of engagement.
- Working only with reputable clients and business partners who share our commitment to ethical labour practices.
- Maintaining recruitment processes that promote fair treatment, transparency and compliance with applicable employment laws.
- Remaining vigilant to any signs of exploitation, coercion, or unethical employment practices.

We expect the same standards from our clients, suppliers and partners and will not knowingly engage with organisations involved in modern slavery or human trafficking.

Genora Partners will continue to review and improve its policies and processes to ensure we uphold the highest ethical standards across all aspects of our business.
